

Welcome

Missouri is a state rich in history, folklore and natural resources. The Conservation Department encourages you to visit, use and enjoy this area and other Department areas.

Land surrounding Linscomb Conservation Area belongs to private landowners. The boundaries adjoining private property are clearly marked. Please respect landowner's rights with these simple courtesies: obtain permission before going on private property, pick up all litter, be careful with fire, do not damage property, practice safe hunting.

Your comments and suggestions regarding area facilities and management are welcome.

Linscomb Wildlife Area

About This Area

Linscomb Wildlife Area is in St. Clair County, 9 miles northeast of El Dorado Springs on Hwy 82, then 1.5 miles north on Route OO.

Formerly known as Winding River Ranch, the property (1,728 acres) was deeded to the Missouri Department of Conservation from the Nevada P. Linscomb Trust in 1998. In 2003, Linscomb Trust purchased 146 additional acres.

This 1,874 acre wildlife area contains several small non-stocked ponds. The Osage Arm of Truman Reservoir borders to the north and Simms Creek borders to the east.

The southwest portion of the area contains remnant prairie, while the southeast portion is oak/hickory savanna. The remainder of the area consists of cropland, old fields, timber and wetlands.
